

Peel contingent in Variety Bash drive

NINE Peel residents are preparing to take part in a 4600km fundraising marathon through three states and eight deserts to the foothills of Uluru, as part of the 21st annual Variety WA Bash.

Car 34 (Eagles) Locky Pleasance, Car 32 (Blues Bros) Bernie Ibbotson, Peter Romaio and Ian Clark, Car 33 (Bananas) John and Sonja Callaghan, Car 1642 (Star Wars) Dan Goodlad and Car 911 (Wonder Woman) Anthea and Ken Cheney will join more than 200 West Australians and their pre-1975 cars in the annual event.

The Bash is neither a race nor a rally. Starting in Adelaide on August 18, the colourful convoy will take fun and excitement to communities in Woomera, Coober Pedy and Erldunda and converge on Alice Springs for a National Bash Event with 2000 other Bash-

Peel region competitors Harry Kirby, John and Sonja Callaghan, Ken and Anthea Cheney, Peter Romaio, Bernie Ibbotson and Ian Clark.

www.communitypix.com.au d304219

ers and 600 Bash Cars.

It will then continue onto Menzies, Kalgoorlie and Bruce Rock and finish with a 21st Birthday Bash celebration in Perth on August 29.

Along the way, the Variety Bashers will present much-needed grants of educational and recreational equipment to individuals and regional community groups for children in need.

Visit www.varietywa.org.au or call 9355 3655 to donate.